Bangkok - Thavi-Wattana

Bangkok, the city of angels or "Krungthep" in Thai, is the capital city of Thailand. Bangkok is the hub for most of the commercial and economical activities of the Kingdom. At the same time, the city is very famous and appreciated by visitors for its versatility and multiple points of interests.

Thongsook College is located in Bangkok in the district of Thavi-Wattana. The district is named after Khlong Thavi-Wattana, a very long khlong that runs roughly northwest-southeast through the area. It was a tambon, part of Amphoe Taling Chan of Thon Buri province, back in 1933. It was promoted to a district effective from 6 March 1998. Much of the land is used for agriculture with many khlongs providing water to the orchards.

Higher education in Thailand will play a crucial role in supporting the continued economic integration of ASEAN.

Thongsook College can proudly announce that the integration of ASEAN academic calendars are implemented and followed by the faculty of International Programs.
